

Instruction sheet

Completing the identification form for individuals and sole traders

Identification and Verification

Anti-Money Laundering & Counter-Terrorism Financing laws require Avanteos Investments Limited (AIL) and Colonial First State Investments Limited (CFSIL) to establish the identity of its clients (and other persons associated with a client's account). To do this, you need to complete the attached form and this instruction sheet will assist you in doing so.

Verifying the information

All documents are required to be verified; there are a number of ways this can occur:

- If you have an adviser they are able to verify documents on our behalf and will need to complete section 4 of the form.
- If you do not have an adviser, you will need to get the documents stated in section 3 of the form correctly certified (see section 'How do I get a document certified?') in order for AIL or CFSIL to verify them on your behalf. Please then send the certified documents along with your completed identification form to us.

What do I need to complete?

The sections you complete of the attached form depend on whether you are an Individual or a Sole Trader. The below table provides you with a guide to which sections you need to complete as identified by a tick (✓) and also provides a brief explanation of each of the sections. Where a cross (✗) appears you do not need to complete this section.

What other identification can I provide?

If you are an individual and do not own a primary identification document (listed in the table headed Section 3 Part I of the form), you must provide two forms of acceptable certified* secondary identification (listed in the table headed Section 3 Part II of the form) by selecting one option from each of the two categories within Part II. For example, you can provide an Australian Birth certificate and a document issued by the Australian Taxation Office in the last twelve months or a utilities notice (eg electricity or water bill) containing your full name and residential address.

Alternatively, you may wish to provide your foreign driver's licence that contains your photo and your date of birth, together with a national ID card issued by a foreign government containing your photo and your signature (listed in the table headed Section 3 part III of the form).

Will documents in a language other than English be accepted?

Documents that are written in a language that is not English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator. An accredited translator is any person who is currently accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters Ltd (NAATI) at the level of Professional Translator or above.

How do I get a document certified?

To be correctly certified, we need the document(s) to be certified as 'True copy of the original document' and signed by a:

- Justice of the Peace
- Solicitor
- Police Officer
- Magistrate
- Notary Public (for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993)
- Employee of Australia Post (with two or more years of continuous service)
- Your financial adviser (provided they have two or more years of continuous service)
- Your accountant (provided they hold a current membership to a professional accounting body)
- Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer (within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955)
- An officer of a bank, building society, credit union or finance company provided they have two or more years of continuous service.

The party certifying the ID document(s) will also need to state what position they hold and sign and date the document(s). If the certification does not appear on the document(s), you may be asked to send in new certified documents. There are additional persons who can certify documents. A full list of the persons who can certify documents is available from our forms library at www.cfs.com.au.

SECTION 2: TAX INFORMATION

Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions:

Is the individual a tax resident of Australia? Yes No

Is the individual a tax resident of another Country? Yes No

If the individual is a tax resident of a country other than Australia, please provide their tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below. If they are a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

1. Country	<input type="text"/>	TIN	<input type="text"/>	If no TIN, list reason A, B or C	<input type="text"/>
2. Country	<input type="text"/>	TIN	<input type="text"/>	If no TIN, list reason A, B or C	<input type="text"/>
3. Country	<input type="text"/>	TIN	<input type="text"/>	If no TIN, list reason A, B or C	<input type="text"/>

If there are more countries, provide details on a separate sheet and tick this box.

- Reason A The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents
- Reason B The individual has not been issued with a TIN
- Reason C The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed
